TRIAL OF LEE GASKINS. Large Crowd Attracted to Court-Special Correspondence of The Evening Star.

FORT MEYER HEIGHTS, Va. April 24, 1800.

Not since the dedication of the new court ouse last fall has such a crowd been witsessed there as gathered this morning at the opening session of the Alexandria county court for the April term. The second trial of Lee Gaskins, recently convicted before Judge Love on a charge of attempted train-wrecking, was set for today, and unusual interest was shown in the case. Prior to the opening of the Gaskins trial, Mr. J. C. De Pruton of Falls Church presented to the court a protest signed by Mayor Hawkhurst, setting forth alleged illegal action by Jailer Nourse in the pre-mature dismissal from custody of Henry Thurston, recently convicted before the mayor's court of assault with intent to kill. A fine of $10 and imprisonment for twenty days in jail had been imposed by the Falls Church authorities, while Thurston, it appears, had been released from jail on the fourteenth day of his imprison-

Judge Love heard the statements of Sheriff Palmer and Jailer Nourse, to the effect that Thurston was ill when released, and disposed of the matter by directing the sheriff to secure the fine in the case or rearrest Thurston for contempt of court.

The Gaskins trial was next taken up and The Gaskins trial was next taken up, and Attorney Flannigan addressed the court on his motion for a change of venue, an affidavit of the prisoner being filed in support of his contention. Assistant Common-wealth Attorney C. C. Corlin opposed the motion, which was finally overruled by Judge Love and an exception noted by the defense.

The following were sworn as jurymen:
John S. Emery, Charles Price, Henry
Goings, Joseph Oleson, William Marcey, Robert Kidwell, H. S. Works, Frank Fields,
Richard Burch, Jacob Burch, George
Beach and James E. Merritt.
Upon the direction of the court, all witnesses were excluded from the room and jury. He was followed by Attorney Flan-nigan, for the defense. After a brief recess the court spent the afternoon in hearing testimony, and short-ly after 4 o'clock an adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. It is believed the case will occupy three full days, as a large number of witnesses full days, as a large number of witnesses must be examined on both sides.

On the motion of Attorney James E. Clements, the court directed that Hiram Schuring, a native of "The Netherlands," be admitted to citizenship, and ordered a certificate of his continued residence in the United States for five years, drawn in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, to be filed. Messrs. W. S. Hull and Alexander Pavarin of Alexandria county and J. A. Tumulety of Washington, D. C., appeared as witnesses in the matter. as witnesses in the matter.

MISSING GIRL.

Agent Parkman Requests Police to Find Anna Brown.

Agent Parkman of the board of children's guardians has requested the police to find Anna Brown, seventeen years old, who left her home last Thursday. The girl is an orphan, and a number of months ago was given a home in Georgetown. When her disappearance was reported by her guardian Agent Parkman made an investigation. He learned that Anna went from here to Fairfax county, Va., where she has re'atives. She left there Saturday morning and was seen in the Western Market, on K street, that afternoon. Since then Agent Parkman has been unable to trace her movements. When the girl left home she movements. When the girl left home she wore a red waist, gray skirt and a straw hat trimmed with red flowers. It is thought that she is in the home of some girl friend.

Golden opinions from all sorts of MARKETS IN SOUTH AMERICA

A Field That is Neglected by Our Manufac-

The field for American goods in South America, and the opportunity for its enlargement, is the subject of a letter just received by the bureau of statistics of the Treasury Department. It points out the popularity of American goods and the fact that American merchants and manufacturers are not apparently making the effort to extend their trade in South America that those of other countries are making. Imports into Argentine Republic from Germany increased from 8,045,000 pesos in 1886 to 13,895,000 in 1896; those from Italy increased from 4,647,000 pesos in 1886 to 11,-395,000 in 1896; those from the united kingdem, from 33,433,000 in 1886 to 44,730,000 in 1896, while those from the United States, which in 1886 were 7,673,000, were in 1896 11,210,000 out of a total importation in 1896 of 112,164,000 pesos in value. An examination of our owner. of 112,104,000 pesos in value. An examination of our own export figures by countries shows that our exports to Argentina, which in 1889 were $0,293,856, were in 1898 $6,429,070.

The letter in question says: "A statement in a periodical, referring to the commerce of Argentina in regard to the manufactures which Europe exploits exclusively for its own benefit, is worthy of consideration, when it is clear that the United States for many reasons should supply the South American merchants with its manufactures of a quality superior to the German, sim-American merchants with its manufactures of a quality superior to the German, similar to the English and French. One advantage of the United States is the possession of the raw materials, cotton, wool, etc.; although it may not have wool in sufficient quantity, it can procure that of other places, as Europe has done, in exchange for its merchandise.

Should Study the Trade.

"To obtain satisfactory results it is necess sary that the North American manufacturers should put themselves in direct contact with competent persons, who should be natives of the country where they wish to plant their business, in order that the dealer may understand the needs, tastes and customs of the consumers and all necessary modifications of which the trade may be susceptible; width, design, color, etc., in which each country has its own customs and tastes, which vary, but do not change. "In this country preference is given to French fashions, but imitations from other sources are accepted. From England some American textiles are brought for domestic use, pack thread, dimity, satinets, canvas and some others which sell at a price higher than those made by them (the English), the preference being given them by the connoisseurs for the fineness of the material, evenness of the weave and greater durability. plant their business, in order that the deal-

"It is well understood that the person who takes the lead will have the entrance into the provinces of Paraguay, Bolivia and Chile, as they are united by the railroad which will pass across the cordilleras of the Andes, which is already advanced and which in a few years will be completed.

"The nationality of the person who should take the lead in this place has no radical importance, since Europeans who represent importance, since Europeans who represent the manufacturers of their respective coun-tries manage to promote the interests which tries manage to promote the interests their constituents have confided to them, their constituents have merchandise by "Connoisseurs estimate merchandise by its durability of color and texture, and are displeased with fraudulent imitations, which

JEWS IN PALESTINE.

What the Turkish Minister Says on the Subject.

All Ferrough Bey, the Turkish minister here, takes a deep interest in the proposition for the purchase and occupation of Palestine by a free Jewish nation. He has authorized a statement of his views on the subject, as follows:

"There seems to be a prevailing idea in this country that only a monetary consideration is involved in this plan now being agitated in high Hebrew circles over the proposed purchase of Palestine. I have noticed that all the press accounts dwell on the fact that the Hebrews are able to raise millions ad infinitum, and with these millions the sale of Palestine is then assured. "I can assure the American people that such is not the state of affairs. The sublime porte does not desire to sell any part of its Arabian country, and no matter how many millions of gold are offered this de-termination will not be altered. This statement is the official reply from Constantinople to many Turkish envoys who have been asked to sound the government on this point.

"There appears to be an opinion among the American people that our government is in need of financial assistance. This is a grave error. At no time since the Crimean war has Turkey been so well equipped as to her monetary apparatus. Our public debt has been yearly decreased until now it is but a trifle. So rapidly are our revenues increasing that we are about to change our fiscal system in order to meet the growing demands. The purchase of Palestine thus becomes a political question and not one of swelling our exchequer. "The present agitation to establish a free home for the Hebrew race within the confines of the old promised land, the historic patrimony of Abraham, seems to me a very chimerical proposition. I cannot understand why the Jews under the Turkish sovereignty should be more discontent-ed than the subjects of other countries. "I know that they hold that they are persecuted and oppressed in some lands, but such is not the case in ours. The Jew-ish people under the Turkish sultan are prosperous, happy and contented. Scores of them hold high government positions, In their private and individual pursuits they are never troubled.

"Now, the Turkish government does not consider it wise to change this state of affairs for one which could not fail to cause political and economic confusion. It must not be considered that personally I am hostile to the plan. I merely voice the official sentiments of the Constantinople foreign office. foreign office.

"But I do not think it fair to encourage by silence false hopes, the realization of which would only lead to trouble and em-barrassment for a nation which has certainly never persecuted the Hebrew race. If the promoters of the plan would heed this advice I know it will save their coreligionists in Europe and Asia troubles and disappointments hereafter."

Buddy Johnson, a young colored man, was arrested yesterday by Policeman Samson and locked up on a charge of theft. It was alleged that while employed on street work on B street near the market he stole a quantity of lead cable. The cable had been used by the District, but had been abandoned, and workmen were removing it preparatory to putting down a new pavement. Johnson denied the charge, but the proof given against him in Judge Scott's court this morning satisfied the judge of his guilt. A fine of $10 was imposed. was imposed.

STUDENTS AS ACTORS.

Henry IV to Be Presented at George-

Encouraged by their great success in 'Richelieu," the students of Georgetown University will supplement their Christmas efforts this evening in Gaston Hall with another play, that of "Henry IV," of William Shakespeare.

There is promise of a large attendance and the young actors certainly deserve every encouragement. The production of "Richelieu" during the Xmas holidays was followed by universal commendation from the local critics. The consensus of opinion seemed to decide that it was the best amain Washington. The prejudice against "play acting" among the men of the college lasted over thirty years, the very last play being by a strange coincidence "Richelleu" also. The credit for having revived and fostered the present enthusiastic interest in Thespian affairs belongs to Rev. Father Whitney, S. J., and Mr. John D. McCarthy, S. J. They have worked earnestly with the young men, and now are able to add to the course in general Eng-lish at the college the most valuable adjunct of actual production of the famous and classic plays of the greatest of all dramatists.

In speaking of the coming play, Charlemagne Koehler, A.M., the instructor, has stated that it will surpass "Richelieu" in every particular. Such a conclusion is not unreasonable, for experience teaches one how to do better, and the novices of "Rich-elieu" will doubtless prove veterans in "Henry IV." Mr. Koehler has worked unceasingly with the men. He was with the famous Booth and Barrett organization, and is a graduate of the Jesuits' College in Cincinnati. In addition to the excellent ap-pointments of the "Richelieu" stage two new scenes have been placed for "Henry

In the cast are many popular college men. Charles Vincent Moran, 1902, will take the lines of Hotspur. He was the hit of "Richelieu" in the part of De Mauprat. Moran's voice is of the purest character, and is well controlled by the clever young actor. Acting is not his only calling; all of the local base ball "fans" will remember Georgetown's shortstop a long time. "Lobster" Moran, they call him, because they like him. C. Moran Barry, 1901, will be the large, jolly, old Sir John Falstaff. He took the part of Huguet in "Richelleu."

It is said she mentioned to him the fact that, after a month of banishment, and much to the regret of the more thoughtful and orderly class of soldiers, liquors are now replaced in the canteen. She also spoke of the ex-treme youth of the soldiers, many of them mere boys, and said many are learning to drink and are becoming drunkards, adding: "We want our boys protected."
